“Amazon John” Easterling

(Shown left) Easterling's original degree is in Environmental Studies, but in the 70's he deviated from the ordinary to become a treasure hunter in South America. During his years of exploration in the rainforest a simple truth became clear: The real treasure of the rainforest is the life-enhancing properties of the rainforest plants. He is now a Rainforest Educator and is a contributing author of “Healing Ourselves, Healing Our Planet.” Amazon John's 30 years of Rainforest experience have been profiled on TV and Radio including “Good Morning America” and “Fox and Friends.” He has been featured in two PBS documentaries: World News Report “Amazon John and Rainforest Medicines,” and Jean Michel Cousteau's “Return to the Amazon.”
